

Ms. Tanya Rahall

Tanya Rahall is Managing Director of RTK Consulting Group LLC. Ms. Rahall specializes in public and government relations primarily for domestic organizations and foreign government and business interests. A former House of Representatives Committee staff member, she has extensive experience with the U.S. Congressional legislative process and expertise with the Congressional authorization and appropriations process. As the co-founder and Executive Director of the ATFL and the ATFL Legislative Council, she presented testimony and secured much-needed economic, military and humanitarian aid for Lebanon. Her work with RTK, since, has focused on Lebanon, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Central Asia.

Ms. Rahall has been an occasional guest of the White House, most significantly for meetings in the Oval office with Arab-American leaders; a State Dinner for His Excellency then Prime Minister of Israel Ehud Barak, a State Dinner honoring His Majesty the former King Hussein of Jordan and two historic occasions for the signing of the Israeli-Arab Peace Accords.

Ms. Rahall is an investor and licensed real estate agent with Fairfax Realty Elite of Georgetown.
