

Kamal Shouhayib

Mr. Shouhayib is the founder and CEO of The Choice Group, the parent company of his successful real estate and investment subsidiaries based in Troy, Michigan. As an immigrant to the United States, businessman, philanthropist, and engaged community member to both Troy, Michigan and Aley, Lebanon, Mr. Shouhayib is a passionate Troy Rotarian of more than 35 years, supporting the efforts of the organization near and far. He was instrumental in bringing his birth city of Aley and his adopted city of Troy together as sister cities. Mr. Shouhayib received the coveted Rotary International "Service Above Self" Award based on his efforts to help to bring clean water to areas around the world, including 1,200 schools in Lebanon. In addition, Kamal Shouhayib has previously served on the board of the American Task Force of Lebanon (ATFL) as a member; Past National President of the American Druze Society; One of the Founders of the American Druze Foundation. He studied Engineering at Michigan Technological University.